

CAPITAL SUPPORT SHORTLISTED FOR THE CRN AWARDS FOR THE THIRD CONSECUTIVE YEAR

The nominations for the 2011 CRN awards have been announced and Capital Support is pleased to announce finalist status for Service Provider of the Year Award for the third year running. The awards are the most sought after in the IT channel industry and Capital Support is the only vendor to have made it on to the short list three years in a row.

The CRN Awards are designed to recognise service provider excellence and exceptional performance, acknowledging customer service, proactive solutions and innovation and progression. Capital Support prides themselves on their proactive approach and bespoke offering to their clients so being shortlisted for this award is a real credit to the company.

Carrie Saunderson, Head of Business Development and Marketing comments:

“We are delighted to have achieved a finalist position for the third year running. It is a great achievement for us and this recognition of our efforts is an inspiration for us to continue our client focused approach.”

The winners will be announced on Thursday 17th November 2011 at the Battersea Park Events Arena. For more information on the event please visit the website
