For Immediate Release

CAPITAL SUPPORT VOTED BEST MANAGED ACCOUNT TECHNOLOGY

Over 41,000 subscribers of Hedgeweek were influential in generating the results of the second Hedgeweek Awards 2011 – voting London based IT Solutions Provider Capital Support as the Best (Managed Account) Technology Provider.

The awards presented in Mayfair were attended (and voted upon) by Individual and Institutional Investors, prime brokers and custodians as well as fund managers. Hedge Week state

“The second edition of the Hedgeweek Awards for excellence among hedge fund managers and service providers has recognised the increased focus on transparency, consistency and depth of expertise in the new investment climate”

Capital Support's award comes hot on the heels of their recent placement as the sixth top performing IT Provider in Europe and is a welcome addition to the growing industry recognition of the culture of excellence inherent in the IT providers approach to delivering technology solutions.

Director, Nigel Brooks said “The entire team at Capital Support are dedicated to raising the bar in terms of quality service to the Hedge Fund Industry, and to have this recognised in such a way is rewarding - particularly when the awards are voted for by the very people we strive to serve.”
