

SERVICES PROVIDER OF THE YEAR – CRN CHANNEL AWARDS 2010

Capital Support attended the CRN Channel Awards evening at the Battersea Park Arena on Thursday 18th November 2010 along with the crème de la crème of the IT Channel. As a finalist for the Service Provider of the Year, Capital Support eagerly awaited the results and are delighted to announce our position as runner up to first place with special commendation from the judges.

David Mansfield, Director at Capital Support said:

“This is an outstanding result and we are delighted! This confirms that our efforts and endeavour to always go the extra mile are not only acknowledged but are rewarded. We pride ourselves in delivering a high quality service tailored to our clients' needs, and runner up for this award has inspired us to not only continue on this elite path but to grow and continuously improve. We will definitely be entering next year. We had a fantastic evening – I would like to thank all those involved in the organising of this truly remarkable event.”

The CRN Channel Awards are designed to recognise service provider excellence and offers acknowledgment of customer service, proactive solutions, innovation and progression. It presents a definitive mark of achievement and Capital Support is pleased to have achieved finalist status for two consecutive years and to have achieved runner up for 2010.
